CORNER STONE LAYING. Services at the Concordia Lutheran's New Church Foundation.

The corner stone of the new chapel to be erected by the Concordia Lutheran church in the rear of their church building at the corner of 20th and G streets northwest, a full description of which was published in Saturday's STAR, was laid yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. The members of the congregation and the Sunday school assembled in the church and after music by the choir a procession was formed, led by the pastor and superintendent, Rev. J. Mueller, and the entire congregation proceeded to the platform erected on the site of the proposed building. After scripture reading Rev. Mr. Mueller made a brief address and then the hymn "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" was rendered. A list of articles placed in the stone were read as follows: The documents describing the origin of the chapel; historical sketch of the Sunday school from the year 1869 to the present time; names of the founders and the respective pastors and the present officers and teachers of the school; a copy of the constitution of the school; a jubilee memorial medal; a copy of the German parish paper (Die Glocke); a clipping from a Washington journal containing an account of the event, and one from The Evening Star. The corner stone was then laid by the pastor with a blessing and then a male quartet sang the song "The Chapel," which was written by with the benediction by the pastor. The Alleged Gipsy Camp Robber. Detective Raff returned from Portsmouth last night with James Howell alias James Smith alias "Jim," the negro who is charged with robbing the gipsy camp near Glenwood cemetery of $730 last Thursday. "Jim," as he was called by the gipsies, came here with Francis Canfield, one of the gipsies, who found him in Virginia. It is alleged "Jim" got $55 from the tent Wednesday morning and the next day he got $675. Then he thought it was time to skip and he did so. From here he went to Alexandria, where he purchased a complete outfit of clothing, and then he went to Portsmouth. There he met a girl on whom he spent money freely and purchased a plush suit. When Detective Raff reached Portsmouth he took possession of the prisoner's effects, ccusisting of two trunks of clothing and $381.65. This morning the prisoner was photographed for the rogues' gallery and tomorrow he will be given a hearing in the Police Court.

Rev. Mr. Mueller. The services were concluded

Good Templars. Perseverance lodge of Good Templars had a largely attended meeting Saturday evening and one new member was initiated, Chief Templar Mary L. Edson presiding.
